

NEWARK CAN'T WAIT

for the same old politicians in Newark to solve problems that have been around for almost twenty years. The people of Newark have waited long enough. Let's make a change.

The Team we want for the Change we need.

Team Booker stands for safe streets, better neighborhoods, and improved schools.

Stand with us now, because more than ever before, Newark needs a change.

On May 14, elect a new era of leadership that works for all the people of Newark.

It is time for a renaissance for the rest of us.

Cory BOOKER
for mayor

As Councilman of the Central Ward, Cory Booker has in a short time earned a reputation as a community activist, innovative problem solver, Cory Booker is determined to make Newark's renaissance real for everyone, not just downtown. As mayor, he will fight to make our streets and neighborhoods safe, and improve our schools.

Dwayne WARREN
for south ward
councilman

Dwayne Warren is an experienced attorney and community leader in the South Ward. A former assistant Essex County Prosecutor, Dwayne knows how to fight crime and will work to stop crime in all of Newark's neighborhoods, not just downtown. Dwayne is a partner in his own law firm, and a proven leader who knows how to get the job done. He has served as counsel to the Newark NAACP and the Essex County Democratic Organization. He is also a member of the Weequahic Homeowner's Coalition.

Ronald C.
RICE
for council
member at-large

Ron Rice earned a bachelor's and master's degree from American University and a law degree from Seton Hall. Ron will strive to expand community safety, youth empowerment, recreation programs, small business development, and community participation. Ron has extensive experience in government including work on Capitol Hill, in the Essex County Prosecutor's Office, and for an Essex County Superior Court Judge. Ron is currently an analyst with the New Jersey Department of Education.

Marjory AVANT
for council
member at-large

Marjory Avant is committed to helping people in Newark. She has dedicated much of her career as an attorney to strengthening our communities and bringing change to all of Newark. Marjory has benefited the lives of many Newark residents through her work with social service agencies such as PCCI, Friendly Fuld, Cross Counters, and Project Babies. Marjory has a degree from Rutgers University and attended the Leadership Newark Civic Training program.

Carlos C.
GONZALEZ
for council
member at-large

Carlos has a wealth of experience in law and business. Carlos understands how to make Newark more business friendly and efficient. As city councilman, Carlos will make sure that the wealth of Newark stays in Newark and is shared across all the neighborhoods; not just downtown. Carlos, a father of two, has worked nine years as a public auditor, runs his own law practice in Newark and is a professor at Essex County College.

The Change We Need:

- 1. Increase neighborhood policing to reduce quality of life crimes.
- 2. Empower residents to create their own neighborhood redevelopment plans. We must build neighborhoods, not just cheap housing.
- 3. Create "Safe Havens" for children by expanding school mentoring, recreation and community programs.
